By signing this form, I understand and agree to the listed below conditions and requirements. I have also read, accept and share the organisation's mission and will support it to my best abilities as a member. I state that I can meet the following conditions.

Conditions for Membership

1. are proven creatives, or emerging creatives through education, professional experience, public recognition and art related activities, lifelong experience or other aspects directly connected to the arts such as theatre, music, painting, media, writing, design, architecture, fashion, film, etc;
2. accept, share, and contribute responsibly to the organisation's mission and image;
3. actively participate and contribute to the organisation activities;
4. understand the "free will" of gaining or refusing membership;
5. appreciate and value their own membership and have a good financial standing by paying their yearly membership fees;
6. do not provoke or present threat to the organization or its members. Any known illegal activity will cause immediate membership denial and report to the appropriate authorities;
7. understand that the organisation reserves its right to refuse or waive previously granted membership based on the above criteria. Decisions are made based on the majority votes of the management committee which reports to all members;
8. have presented a biography (with photo), portfolio, and cover letter with this application for review and approval;
9. will promote the organisation with a view to bringing in new members throughout Australia and the globe.
